SCHOOL MEMORANDUM
No. 159, s. 2026

August 26, 2026

CONDUCT OF BHSA GAD ACTIVITY FOR YOUNG ARTISTS AND PARENTS TITLED
"EMPOWERING THE BHSA COMMUNITY: AN INCLUSIVE AND EXCELLENCE-DRIVEN LEARNING ENVIRONMENT"

To: Deputy Directors
Chief, Functional Divisions
Teaching and Non-Teaching Personnel
Young Artists and Parents
All Others Concerned

1. In line with the commitment of Bataan High School for the Arts (BHSA) to promote a safe, inclusive, and gender-responsive learning environment, the school will be conducting the Gender and Development (GAD) Advocacy and Learner Empowerment Program titled "Empowering the BHSA Community: An Inclusive and Excellence-Driven Learning Environment", on August 29-30, 2026, at a venue within Bataan.
2. The objectives of the activity are to:
 - a. Enhance awareness and understanding of young artists and parents on gender-related laws, policies, and child protection mechanisms;
 - b. Strengthen the partnership between BHSA, young artists, and parents in promoting a safe, respectful, and inclusive school environment free from discrimination; and
 - c. Empower young artists to actively participate in creating a safer BHSA community by developing positive behaviors, responsible decision-making, and commitment toward academic and artistic excellence.
3. Transportation arrangements for the participating young artists shall be facilitated and coordinated by the Student Affairs (SA) Division to ensure their safe and orderly transport to and from the venue. The SA Division shall also be responsible for obtaining the parent consent and other necessary communication to young artists and parents.
4. A Nurse-in-Charge and designated medical personnel shall be available throughout the two-day activity to attend to health-related concerns and to provide immediate basic medical assistance.
5. This memorandum shall serve as the travel authority of the participants, subject to existing applicable rules and regulations on official travel. Enclosed are the List of Participants and Program Matrix.
6. Immediate and wide dissemination of this Memorandum is earnestly desired.

MIA ARIANNA M. MANCIONGCO, PhD
Director of School Director
